THE NEWS DURING THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

We desire to have the NEWS largely circulated during the Presidential campaign. The larger our subscription list the more effectually will we be enabled to work, and to this end we trust our friends and patrons will exert themselves somewhat in adding to our present list. The nation will in November declare for GREELY and BROWN, and it is essential that North Carolina should place herself squarely on this liberal movement—for such a consummation will we earnestly labor.

In order to place the DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS within the reach of all, we will send them for a period of four months at the following rates:

DAILY NEWS.

One copy	$ 2 25
Five copies	10 00
Ten copies	17 25

WEEKLY NEWS.

One copy	$ 60
Five copies	2 50
Ten copies	4 50
Fifteen copies	6 00
Twenty copies	8 00
One hundred copies	35 00

We trust our friends in the State will assist us in adding names to our list, as by a little exertion on their part we can be enabled to accomplish much good during the present campaign.

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor

COTTON MARKET.—The receipts yesterday were light and but little activity in market. Some sales at 17c.

PUBLIC SPEAKING IN NASH COUNTY.—Henry A. London, Jr., of Chatham county, Greeley and Brown Elector for the Fourth Congressional District, and other speakers will address the people of Nash county at the following times and places: Nashville, September 26, Manning's, Friday, September 27, Ferrell's, Saturday, September 28.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

No Mayor's Court yesterday.

No mail yesterday from Petersburg, or beyond.

Gov. Caldwell is slightly indisposed at his home in Morganton, and will not be at the Executive office before next week.

The Henderson Fair promises to be a great success. The members of the society are working like beavers towards this end.

Gassette, has been heard from. He writes to a friend in the city that he is disgusted with politics. We rather think the disgust is mutual.

Several fast native trotters have been entered for the contest at the State Fair. An exciting race is anticipated and a good time expected.

The North Carolina Railroad Company will commence the building of a large and commodious warehouse at the Central depot in this city, at an early day.

Capt. King, the Chief of the City Police, examined yesterday morning the scales of all the Market House Stall Keepers to the standard weights and report all correct.

A petition is generally being signed by the Market Stall keepers, asking the City Commissioners to prohibit the sale of country produce by hucksters at the market, during market hours.

Business was brisk and lively on the streets yesterday. Martin, Wilmington and Hargett streets were blocked with wagons and drays, loading and unloading, and everybody seemed prosperous and prospering.

A young lady who has been greatly annoyed by a lot of young simpletons who stop under her window at night to sing "If Ever I Cease to Love," wishes us to say if they will cease their foolishness, come in and talk "business," they will confer a favor.

John A. Fagg, Esq., of Asheville the leader of the six or eight North Carolina Straight outs, is in the city, as is supposed by some for the purpose of getting out his State ticket. Mr. Fagg will doubtless be surprised to learn that his friend Gassette is disgusted with the political prospects, and withdraws from the field, doubtless for the purpose of going back to Grant, from which point he started, when his expenses were paid by the Radicals as a delegate from this city to the Louisville Convention.

Theo N. Ramsay, Grand Worthy Secretary and General Deputy of the Independent Order of Good Templars for North Carolina, left this city for Oxford Wednesday morning.

Mr. Ramsay opened his temperance campaign in that place Wednesday night.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Especial attention is directed to the following new advertisements which appear for the first time in to-day's issue:

Piano for rent—W. H. Vaughan.

Geo. T. Stronach & Bro., see notice elsewhere in this column.

J. B. Batchelor & Son, Attorneys at Law, Raleigh, N. C.

See the dissolution of co-partnership heretofore existing between H J. Hamill and W. J. Weir.

C. Wiekel, Merchant Tailor, advertises a few of the many attractions that he offers in gentlemen's wear at his headquarters on Fayetteville Street. We have never seen a better stock of goods in Raleigh than friend Wickel advertises.

Wyche, Parker & Co., Wholesale Dealers in Boots and, Shoes, Trunks, &c., No. 60, Sycamore street Petersburg, Va. This is one of the oldest shoe houses in that city, and has done a large business in North Carolina, and no complaint has been made against them.

T. J. Jarratt & Son, Grocers and Commission Merchants, No. 112 Sycamore. The Messrs. Jarratt are men of a life time experience in cotton and tobacco, and no firm is more careful with the interests of their patrons.

Messrs. Smith & White, No 25 Sycamore street, Petersburg, Va., advertise the fresh arrival of many goods in their line. This is one of the first class Dry Goods houses of Virginia, and too well known to the North Carolina public to require commendation from us.

M. L. Phillips' New Boot and Shoe Store, No. 26, Sycamore street. Though a new house, Mr. Phillips is by no means a new hand at the bellows. Only give him a trial and you will find out that as a shoe and bootist, he is a success. Jno. C. Brooks, a gentlemen well and favorably known to the North Carolina trade has a business commission with this excellent house.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., announce the arrival and opening of their immense stock of Fall goods. It is needless for us to tell the Raleigh public what the Tuckers have. What is it they have not got? Nothing that can be found in any Dry Goods establishment south of New York. With the advantage of a partner almost a resident of New York, for he is always either there or at the manufacturing establishments in New England, making daily purchases of goods suitable for this market. They cannot be surpassed in quantity, quality or price by any house south of Baltimore. See their Fall announcement.

THE STREETS.—We are not a chronic fault-finder, as is frequently charged upon us by some of the city officials, nor do we desire to be continually reverting to the dereliction of duty upon the part of some whose shortcomings are so palpably perceptible that our duty as a faithful chronicler of passing events, would not permit of being passed over without a comment, but in our daily rounds we have occasion to see and notice "some leedle tings" that no one else would take notice of. For instance, the opening of South Street was ordered and commenced more than three months ago; a large quantity of rock were hauled to the deep gully and branch, near the corner of Blount and South Street for the purpose of making a culvert over the chasm which was the only impediment in the way of opening the street out to the Smithfield road. Notwithstanding the fact that the opening of the street would greatly facilitate the large amount of travel in and out of the city on this important thoroughfare, nothing has been done, not a lick made since the rock were carted to the point, with the exception of about an hour's digging, from the small quantity of dirt thrown up in a bank at the spot. We observe on Dawson, Martin, Davie, Cabarrus and Lenoir streets, a large force at work, and as far as we know, greatly improving these thoroughfares. But why overlook entirely another part of the city where the work is as equally important as at these points. We would be glad to see the opening of South street before the winter sets in.

RELIGIOUS.—We are pleased to learn that the religious meetings now in progress at the Baptist and Methodist churches are nightly increasing in interest and large audiences are in attendance each evening. A friend has handed us the following, which we gladly give space:

An Earnest Appeal.—This is written for the business men, whatever their calling or profession, in the city. We exhort you to pause and consider that a work of grace is going on in your community. In two Churches, at least, God is calling and sinners are turning from their evil ways, and moralists are fleeing from their false security. We arrest you in your busy toil and cry "What about your soul?"

If your business is prosperous, its very prosperity makes it the more dangerous to your immortal interest—makes it a more worldly charm and temptation. If it is not prosperous, its failure teaches its vanity and your folly in not seeking something better.

Your days at most are but few. Some of you are old—some seriously afflicted—some of you, though young or in health, are much nearer eternity than you believe or fear. All your life is due to the service of God. You talk and toil a great deal as to business or pleasure or politics, but oh! what about your immortal soul—are you ready to die?

A person of an inquiring turn of mind says there are 100,000 women in Paris named Marie.

NORTH CAROLINA AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY AND STATE FAIR.—If earnest work and a spirit of accommodation, are indications of fitness for official position, we are quite sure that the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society are the right men in the right place.

Last evening the Committee was in session again, discussing matters and perfecting their arrangements for the coming Fair.

We learn that notices have already been received of many articles intended for exhibition.

Each member of the Committee is supervisor of a separate branch, whose duty it is to look after his department and see that it is as full as practicable, and properly arranged. We confidently anticipate a splendid exhibition.

We understand that quite a number of fine trotting horses are daily training for the occasion.

THE CITY POLICE.—This important arm of the city service—the guardians of its peace and quiet, should at all times be an ornament both in the character and appearance of the material that compose the body. Notwithstanding the political complexion of the police force of the city, we have had occasion to observe that they are prompt and efficient in the discharge of their onerous duties. They are armed according to law, but not equipped according to custom. In all of our sister cities the police force wear uniforms and stars upon their breast, but here by some means or other, this important part of the policeman's outfit is overlooked. Now that our State Fair will soon occur, the meeting of the Legislature, the visit of the Petersburg Firemen, &c., would it not be well that our city fathers order the uniforming of the police? We throw out the suggestion, trusting that the commissioners may see it through our lamp.

ADVERTISING.—It is a somewhat notorious fact that those newspapers which exhibit the smallest amount of advertising in their columns are frequently in receipt of the largest income from advertising sources, and give the best satisfaction to their advertising patrons. When a paper demands the same price from every person for the same service all the patrons are satisfied. When the price is varied, to meet the views of the customers, no one is satisfied to pay any more than the smallest price. Consequently, if A pays more than B for similar advertisements, A is likely to charge the publisher with wronging him to that extent. The publisher who obtains the same price every time is the better business manager and the more honest man.

METROPOLITAN.—The Raleigh NEWS is a little "miffed because the 'localizer' of the Battleboro Advance, who has been on a visit to Wilmington, calls it the "Metropolitan City of North Carolina," and says, "we are precious jealous of our rank and title 'Metropolitan,' and can't afford to yield to Wilwington just yet." It is astonishing how these village editors can sometimes put on airs, those of "Wake Court House" being no exception to the rule!—Wilmington Star.

'Spose you will be up at the Fair, brother local.

RETURNED.—Prof. Kerr, the State Geologist, has just returned from an extended trip through the Northwest, having attended a Geological Convention in one of the Western States. Returning via New York, he delivered an address before the Farmer's Club of that city by invitation. The Professor gives a glowing description of the States and Territories through which he passed and a very interesting account of his travels.

OYSTERS.—We luxuriated last evening on fine Norfolk oysters, fresh and fat, at Pepper's green front. There are some "doubting Thomases" who are fond of the bivalves, want them but afraid its too warm to try them on. To all such, we can say that whenever Pepper says they are right, they need not fear. He has been a life-time in the business, and was never known to sell a tainted oyster.

We examined yesterday a beautiful top buggy imported from New York, by Geo. T. Stronach, Esq. It is of the usual size, but weighs only 113 lbs. We regret that our citizens are driven to the necessity of importing their riding vehicles, and yet it is so. In vain do they search the columns of the DAILY NEWS to find that there is a buggy manufactory in the city of Raleigh, and are therefore compelled to order their work from other cities.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Rev. J. D. Hufham is registered at the Yarborough House.

Maj. Jno. B. Neal, a leading and prominent commission merchant of Norfolk, Va., is in the city.

Wm. Empie, Esq., of Wilmington, is at the Yarborough.

A GOOD IDEA.—We mention with pleasure the gratifying fact that the merchants of Raleigh are offering liberal special premiums for various articles to be exhibited at our approaching State Fair. These premiums will be published in due time.

There are in this, the 4th Congressional District, four hundred distilleries making Peach and Apple brandy in operation. The capacity of these distilleries will yield the government $35,000 tax. Here is food for ye Friends of Temperance and Good Templars.

SUSPENDED.—The publication of the campaign paper, Blasting Powder, has been suspended. Mr. Spelman, the editor engaging in other and more lucrative business.

Mr. J. Robert Keen, brother of J. T. Keen, of the firm of Noah Walker & Co., of Petersburg, Va., died a day or two since in Baltimore.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

VALUABLE HINTS.—A regular habit of body is absolutely essential to physical health and clearness of intellect. Nor is this all. Beauty of person cannot co-exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through these natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of the offal of a city through its sewers is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs, and one of its most common results is constipation. This complaint, besides being dangerous in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant breath, a sallow skin, contaminating blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory, and general debility.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters remove all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant or a tonic, or an anti-bilious agent, or a nervine, or a blood depurent, or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membrane which lines it, gently stimulates the liver, braces the nerves, and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristic virtues that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the stronger.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY is no Patent Medicine humbug, gotten up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, but is a perfect Specific for Nasal Catarrh, "Cold in the head," and kindred diseases.

A GLORIOUS RECORD.—Twelve years ago a few modest lines in a New York Journal invited public attention to a new Vegetable Restorative, and solicited a trial of its merits as a remedy for indigestion, biliousness, fever and ague, debility, nervous disorders, rheumatism, and all complaints requiring invigorating and regulating treatment. In this quiet, unpretentious way, PLANTATION BITTERS was introduced to the world. It was a success from the beginning. All that was claimed for it as a tonic, a corrective and antidote to malarious fever, was found to be strictly true. Within five years the annual sales of this article amounted to over One Million of Bottles. A few years more and the demand had swelled to five millions. The annual consumption of the bitters has now reached the almost incredible aggregate of six millions of bottles, and for every bottle sold a copy of the "Illustrated Medical Annual," published by the proprietors, at a cost of $150,000, is given away.

THE "DOG DAYS" AND THEIR DANGER.—At this season of the year the blood is apt to become impure, the appetite poor, the skin sallow, the body enfeebled, the system relaxed, making it susceptible to attacks of chills and fevers, rheumatism, eruptions of the skin, and the development of the effects of the injudicious use of calomel. All this trouble may be avoided by the use of a few bottles of Dr. Tutt's Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight. It is harmless in its effects, but a powerful enemy to diseases. Try it, and you will find it a friend in need.

A Washington special says Attorney General Williams made a reply to Alexander H. Stephens' petition for the pardon of all the Ku Klux confined in the Albany penitentiary. The Attorney General denies the allegations of Stephens, that the conviction of the Ku Klux was illegal, and that their pardon would be an act of justice, and friendliness towards the South, and says the pardon of all of them would have no more political significance than the pardon of those convicted of a violation of other statutes.

Just before the burning of the Westchester Catholic Protectory for children, that institution sent to the Pope a collection of 515 francs for the Holy Father's personal benefit, together with a letter from the President of the institution. The Pope replied in his own handwriting, and after hearing of the destruction of the Protectory, sent six articles to be raffled for the benefit of the institution.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, September 18.

Sherman was at the War Office to-day.

Currency in the Treasury, five and a half millions; coin, seventy five and a half millions.

Jefferson Davis is at Baltimore.

The general character of the Indian speeches, answering to the usual baby talk from the officials, is as follows: They complained of unfair treatment in the past, and asked for horses, guns, ammunition, &c. They wanted the whites to keep on the eastern side of the Missouri. There is plenty of land for all, but the white man must not encroach on the Indian hunting grounds, they complained of the rail roads at some length for running through their country and frightening away the game, and said the treaty of 1868 promised them $7,000 each, which they had never received. The Secretary said they had but a faint idea of the numbers and power of the whites. They would be taken to a great camp where there are over eight hundred thousand white men, meaning New York.

The Indians shook hands, and left seemingly well-pleased with their interview. The Indians were all in their best toggery, paint, eagles, feathers, belts, bears' claws, pipes, shells, beads, &c., and presented a very picturesque appearance.

The Board indefinitely postponed the consideration of the order allowing the people to vote as subscription of $10,000,000 to the Atlantic and Pacific Rail Road in return for preferred stock, notwithstanding a majority had petitioned for it in competition with the Colorado scheme.

WATCH THE NEGROES FROM 16 TO 21!

A great source of fraud in elections in the South arises from the difficulty of preventing the attempts to vote on the part of negro boys from 16 to 21 years of age. A crowd of them is as much alike as a lot of black-eyed peas. Few of them know their own ages, and are easily persuaded by the vile white men and office-holders to swear any thing they wish to enable them to vote. This was one of the chief sources of fraud in the August elections, and must be guarded against in November.

To illustrate our idea, we quote from a most intelligent correspondent: "On Saturday preceding the day of election, we had a meeting of our friends from all parts of the Township. The names of all as they appeared on the registration book were called aloud, and such as could not be endorsed or vouched for by some of our friends present, were challenged. By this mode we challenged 236 names, 175 of which were subsequently rejected. Of this 175 about 50 were of those who had left the Township, or died, but which names would be used, if allowed, for the benefit of those who repeat their votes. This would leave a balance, say, of 125, who attempted to vote illegally and were rejected. Of these 125 attempted fraudulent votes, the bulk of them were boys from 16 to 20 years old, some of whom had been voting for the last two years. We were engaged the entire days of Tuesday and Wednesday preceding the election, hearing the challenged. The 16 year old boys would swear boldly, without a moment's hesitation—as they had doubtless been instructed to do so—that they were 21 years of age; and when we would prove the contrary, by undoubted testimony, they (the boys and their leaders) would treat the matter as pleasantly as if they had only lost a foot-race and committed no crime.—Our experience with these people has convinced us, beyond a doubt, that as a people, they have not one particle of regard for their oaths. To swear falsely has become so common with them, that a large portion of them regard it as no crime to do so, while others are regardless of whether it be a crime or not, so that their notions, feelings or what they regard as their interest, are thereby advanced. And their Justices of the Peace, who are often their leaders, being generally ignorant, irresponsible and corrupt themselves, not only fail to correct or punish crime in these boys, but often encourage them, and use their office as an authority in protecting them."

The foregoing is an extract from a letter of one of the most sensible and true men in North Carolina, in a Township, where nothing but the most active vigilance and courage, prevented more than a hundred fraudulent votes from being given in at one box in August. If our friends elsewhere had been as active and determined, our State ticket to-day would be elected by more than 5,000 majority of votes. Let our friends see to it that these gross frauds shall not be practiced at the ballot on the 5th of November next. "Forewarned—forearmed." And beware, especially, of the reckless, ignorant and audacious negro boys from 15 to 20, who are driven to the polls by unprincipled and unscrupulous white and black masters.

THE PRESIDENTIAL BATTLE-GROUND.

It seems to be generally acknowledged by both parties that the result of the election in Pennsylvania will virtually decide the Presidential contest in November.

That the Radicals believe this is clearly evinced by the tremendous efforts they are making to carry the State for Hartranft, their nominee for Governor. They concede that the election of the Democratic candidate will be well nigh fatal to Grant's prospects—especially if the majority is considerable.

Hence, the Keystone State is the key of the Presidential contest, and has become, in fact, the battle-field of the great national struggle. If the Radicals lose the fight there, Greeley's election is an accomplished fact, and he will be borne into the Presidential chair by an overwhelming majority. If defeated in Pennsylvania, the Grant cohorts will beat a general retreat every where, and will fly, demoralized and discomfited, before the victorious columns of the grand army of Reform and Re-Union.

We are, therefore, not surprised to witness the frantic efforts of the Administration to win the October election at every hazard.

We are not surprised to learn that the Radicals are pouring immense sums of money into Pennsylvania, as they did into North Carolina, to buy up voters and stifle the public voice by bribery and corruption.

We are not suprised that the immense power of the public patronage, both State and National, the horde of office-holders and their understrappers, with all the political enginery and appliances which their positions enable them to use, are being exerted on the side of the Radicals, in order to control the election.

We are not surprised to learn that they are making efforts to introduce negro voters from Washington City and West Virginia, and that almost every species of fraud will be resorted to, in order to manufacture a factitious majority for Hartranft.

But notwithstanding these great disadvantages, the Liberals are making an an active, vigilant and enthusiastic canvass, with every prospect of a great victory before them.

Thousands of honest and influential men who have hitherto been supporters of Grant's Administration, are breaking away from Radicalism, and joining their fortunes with the reform party.

The Pennsylvania out-look is decidedly propitious for our cause, and the result there will be awaited with deep and anxious solicitude by the whole country.

Let us be of good cheer until the voice of the Old Keystone State be heard in October.

QUEER ELECTION STATISTICS.

The county of Hertford gave on the 1st of August, 444 more votes than the voting population in 1870, as per census of that year. Northampton gave 184 more than her voting population the same year, and Halifax 858! more votes than her voting population in 1870.

The vote of the whole State was 195,264, that is 18,878 less than the voting population of 1870, or about 12 per cent less on an average on 214,142, which was the actual voting population of 1870 as per census returns. Yet in Hertford, Halifax and Northampton they voted 1486 more than their voting population in 1870, or, one in every 4½ of their entire population, while in the rest of the State the vote was not more than 5½ of the entire population, and in the white counties not more than 6 on an average of the whole people. Deduction: Gross frauds, in these and other negro counties, or else negro boys grow faster to the age of 21 than white boys! How long will our people submit to such racality?

GIVING UP PENNSYLVANIA.

The Radicals are becoming very uneasy about Pennsylvania. The appearance of the political situation is becoming decidedly gloomy for them.

They begin to cast about for some avenue for escape in case Hartranft should be defeated.

Two of the leading Radical organs of the country, the Philadelphia Press, Forney's paper, and the New York Times, virtually acknowledge that Buckalew, the Democratic candidate for Governor will be elected. The Press acknowledged this some time ago, but still maintained that Grant would carry the State. It begins to change its tune now. In a recent issue of that paper, the following language, in reference to Pennsylvania, occurs:

"If the Cameronian rule-or-ruin tactics now being carried out by most of the Republican journals of the State shall be continued, who does not see that a sweeping defeat awaits us in October, which will likely be followed by a rout in November."

The New York Times, in trying to console the friends of Grant in view of the election of Buckalew, says editorially:

"Meantime, we have a word to say to those who, being unfriendly to General Hartranft, still assert that they can carry the State for Grant in November, in spite of a defeat in October, and that they are willing to try the experiment. In our judgment, the experiment is a hazardous one, only to be justified to those who undertake it by the most unanswerable arguments. We do not for a moment believe that the election of Buckalew in October is necessarily to be followed by the election of Greeley, whom Buckalew at once despises in private and ignores in public. We no not think that it is in the power of the disaffected in any one State to prevent the realization of the earnest desire of the great body of the people of all the States that General Grant shall be re-elected.

"But a victory for the Greeley coalition in Pennsylvania in October would needlessly and unwisely increase the labor of a victory for Grant in the same State, and in the Union in November. If any one doubts this, let him consult the tone of the Greeley organs."

This is not very encouraging language for the Radicals. It is a confession of defeat in October, which will render the victory for Grant in November attainable only by "increase of labor."

We tell the Radical papers that a victory for us in the Pennsylvania State election will give such an impetus to the wave of reform that it will sweep the corruptionists from power in November, and culminate in the overwhelming triumph of the anti-Radical party.

IDLE BOASTING.

The Radicals are famous for making a great noise over a little game.

They are given to a habit of getting up a species of galvanized enthusiasm over imaginary victories, and by unfair criteria and illogical conclusions, endeavor to deceive and mislead the public mind.

As soon as it was known that the nominal majority of Caldwell in this State was two thousand, forthwith the columns of the Radical papers blazed with the tidings of an overwhelming victory, notwithstanding the fact we elected a majority of the members of the Legislature, and five of the Congressional delegation. They claim a gain in this State of seven thousand votes, comparing the returns with the election of 1870, and yet they know that the true criterion is the Gubernatorial election of 1868, when Holden was elected by over eighteen thousand majority. Grant's majority in the same year was over twelve thousand, and the vote in 1871 on Convention, which was made a party question, showed a majority of over nine thousand for the Radicals.

They boasted with great glee over the result in West Virginia a few days ago, and claimed it as a victory for Grant. It turns out that the Governor elect, Jacobs, is for Greeley, and has so declared since his election!

The Radicals were so weak in that State that no Grant candidate was in the field, and Greeley will surely carry the State overwhelmingly in November.

The Radicals are shouting over the result in Vermont and Maine. Yet the figures show that in the former State they have really lost five thousand votes, in proportion to the number of votes polled. In Maine, Grant's majority of 1868 is more than twenty five per cent. larger than that given the Radical candidate for Governor in the late election. This per centage applied to Pennsylvania, will give Greeley over forty thousand majority in that State in November.

LET THERE BE AN ACTIVE CANVASS.

In order to bring out our full strength, there should be an active and vigorous canvass throughout the State.

The canvassers who have been, and those yet to be, appointed should enter promptly on the discharge of their duties.

A great responsibility rests upon them, which they cannot evade.

We notice that in Virginia the Conservative Executive Committee have decided to call a meeting of all the Electors and canvassers for the State, to be held in Richmond, October 1st, to adopt measures for a vigorous prosecution of the canvass in that State.

Would it not be well for our State Committee to call a similar Convention?

THE LANGUAGE OF ONE OF GRANTS' SUPPORTERS.

Wendell Philips, who once charged Grant with being a dishonest man, now advocates his claims to the Presidency with great zeal and earnestness.

In a recent political speech at the North Philips made use of the following language:

"Long live Ulysses Grant. May he continue to be President of the United States until every white man over forty years of age who lives south of Mason and Dixon's line has been forever put into the ground."

Comment is unnecessary. This raving political fanatic exerts great influence among certain classes at the North, and his most extravagant and violent harangues are vehemently applauded.

As the train left the depot the man was facing his assailants with a drawn pistol in his hand, the infuriated mob pressing on him, while a number of others, whites and blacks, were endeavoring to quell the disturbance.

FROM WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

A Lovely Spot--Origin of the Name of Greenbrier---Presentation to Mrs. Peyton---Abolition of Masquerade Balls---The Last Fancy Ball.

We have before given our readers some interesting extracts from the letters of the correspondent of the Washington Patriot, written from White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.

The following from a letter of the same correspondent, under date of September 13th, will be found quite entertaining:

The spot from where I write was once the hunting ground of the fierce and warlike Shawnees. No wonder the brave and bold aborigines clung to it with such ardor, and contested every inch of the encroachment of the pale faces to possess themselves of the red man's camping and hunting ground, for there is not a lovelier or more romantic spot in the Western Hemisphere. The locality of the White Sulphur was known to the Indians as a noted "lick" of the deer and elk, and many a deer was brought to bay, while quenching its thirst, by arrow and bow of these native hunters of the forest.

Another kind of deer is being hunted here by a different kind of beau, and not so sure of his game, though he let fly thousands of arrows of Cupid, coated over with honeyed sweetnes and beguiling flattery, and ruthlessly directed at palpitating hearts in of sweet innocence in the person of the lovely white maiden. The scene and drama of life is being acted over again, but by different players Between the hunters of fortunes and the fortunes of the hunters there is but a single remove, though wide. One is the cringing slave, while the other is an independent freeman—free to "bag his game" wherever he wills, while the former goes down on his knees to a gilded and stuffed calf! If a dozen of Mr. Lo's braves could only arise now out of their camping-ground "over the river," and revisit their old haunts during a "hop" night and witness their favorite ground turned into flirting masquerades, what a yell there would be for the chignon, and a war "hoop" for hooped panniers and Dolly Vardens! The is curiously traced back a hundred and twenty-five years. The springs are named Greenbrier after the county, in the southeast corner of which they are situated; the county is named after the river, and the river received the name by the curious circumstances which I will now relate.

The Lewis family, among others, were the original patentees of this portion of the then Botetourt county. In 1751 Colonel John Lewis, in company with his son, the late General Andrew Lewis, (and father of Senator John H. Lewis, of Virginia,) was exploring the country, and, while making a survey for the grantees, entangled himself in a bunch of green briers on the river, and declared he would ever after call the river "Greenbrier," as he had a right to do in surveying and defining the lines of a little "patch" of one hundred thousand acres, of which he was one of the owners.

The spring was known to the Indians as

"MEDICINE WATER."

As early as 1772 a woman was brought here on a litter forty miles. A tree was felled, and a trough dug in it, filled with the water and then heated by putting hot stones in it. In this was soaked or bathed, while, at stated intervals, the patient drank of the water fresh from the spring, which proved to her a spring of new life, renewed health, and fully cured of a disease which had baffled medical skill. This cure being noised abroad, far and near, attracted many sick persons to the place, who erected rude log cabins in close proximity to this old deer "lick." In 1818 it became the property of Colwell, the father of William B. Colwell, Esq., the president of the company of stockholders. Ever since improvements continued to be made, and its fame grew as a curative agent, till now it is second to none in the world for its healing powers, and a delightful and fashionable summer resort for pleasure seekers. The present season has been one of the longest and most successful since it became known as a watering place—certainly since the war. Owing to its successful conduct this year, Mr. George L. Peyton, the managing proprietor, was presented a few days ago with a magnificent set of

with sleeve buttons to match, by the company, as a token of their appreciation of his successful management of the White Sulphur the present year.

THE COMPANY

has been different in many respects from those of previous years. Though respectable, as is always the case here, the visitors were not brilliant nor lavish with their money. They were an economical set. No popping of champagne bottles, few serenades, and no masquerade balls, a popular feature of amusement here. The tabooing of masquerades was due to the large crowd, excursion parties, and to the colored waiters. The night of a masquerade ball the negroes become wild with excitement and play havoc with Peyton's crockery, and get so demoralized that they cannot be got to wait on the guests, sometimes for two or three days. The company this year was mainly composed of married people, with the romance of life worn or knocked out of them; fat old ladies determined to keep cool, speculative old bachelors, anxious old maids for the coming man, frisky widows, and crazy widowers, who were bent on and determined not to marry their equals and hose suitable for them, but young girls, he spring chickens of the ball-room and parlor. There was a noticeable deficiency of the youth and beauty which made this place of resort conspicuously attractive for even all sexes and classes. For has not youth, beauty and vivacity a charm for all? The most pitiable scene to witness in the drama of life is to see an old man with a young wife; something the festive old "Dolly Spankers" and gay roosters are slow to acknowledge, notwithstanding their white top knots and creaking joints. Old heads and young hearts never do go together (matrimonially,) view them in whatever light you may.

THE BALL ROOM

of the "White" is the most attractive point at the springs. It is certainly one of the finest in the world. An Englishman, a travelled gentleman, by the way, standing at the window looking in at the gay dancers of a fancy ball night, arrayed in all the gay colors of the rainbow, decking off matchless forms of exquisite types of beauty as they waltzed past in the so-called "poetry of motion," exclaimed in a burst of enthusiasm, "Well, I never saw anything to equal it in England!" So great is the disire to see the dancing and dancers and the fancy and rich costumes, that immediately after tea the windows on the grand piazza looking into the ball room are secured or taken possession of by eager and excited sightseers.

THE LAST FANCY BALL

of the season took place Wednesday night. Although many of the old guests had left, it was of respectable numbers, an excursion from Richmond having augmented the depleted ranks of the old visitors considerably, so that the last fancy ball of the season was a success. Some of the nicest and richest dresses of the season were worn Wednesday night. Who was the belle of the ball would be rather invidious in me to say in print, where so many shone forth resplendently. Yet, withal, I may be pardoned, with a great deal of propriety, in awarding the palm to Old Dominion. In this instance there were "two of her," Queen sisters, the Misses Goss, (Nannie and Pinkie,) of Orange county, Virginia, who captured and, carried everything before them, male and female in the way of admiration and personal charms. In the matter of personal beauty it appeared to be a "drawn game" between them. But I might say to Miss P., as old Ben Johnson said to "Celia:"

Drink to me only with thine eyes.
And I will pledge with mine;
Or leave a kiss but in thy cup,
Add I'll not look for wine, for they are the most beautiful black eyes I have ever gazed into.

But the

the lively strains of music is hushed, the lights are put out, the ball room is still as death, and all but me departed—I only am left to tell the tale, and many a one I could unfold, during a five years' sojourn, but not now. The actors in some have not yet finished their parts.

"IDLEWILD"

FOR SALE

—AT—

AUCTION!

That Splendid property, on Newbern avenue, in the city of Raleigh, known as

"IDLEWILD,"

(The former residence of the late John Cotton,) is offered for sale.

The dwelling is the largest and most perfect private residence in the city, containing fifteen rooms, as follows: One 32x22; five 22x22; seven 20x20; two 15x12, and two large halls; a passage way 48 feet by 10. The house is two stories, with dressed rock basement, upper and lower porches with large columns on each side. All the necessary out-houses, stables, carriage house, &c., &c., are on the premises.

The lot contains about three acres including a large garden with the most magnificent oak grove surrounding the residence to be found in the State; a most beautiful and sloping lawn of ample depth and width fronts the dwelling. This property is the most desirable in the city—situated on an elevation of some fifty feet above the Capitol; the healthiest and most attractive and growing part of the city; the grounds, fences, residence and out-buildings are in the most perfect order—not one dollar is required to be spent on same.

The above valuable property will be offered for sale at the Court House door in Raleigh, on Wednesday, October 16th, at 12 o clock. Terms easy.

N. B.—This property has been highly recommended for a Boys' civil or Military School; an institution of both kinds sadly needed at this point.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of tuousands of Dollars in Life Premenms are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.
